Several Cases on Docket Will Be Transferred to Danville.

to Fire Department Station for Help.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] March term of the United States District Court will be convened to-morty of morning at 9:39 o'clock in the City Council chamber in the city courthouse. Judge Henry Clay McDowell presiding. For the first time in the recollection of the officials of the court no grand jury will be present, several cases on the docket having been transferred to the Danville court for consideration of the grand jury that will be necessary for that court later during the month.

Among the revenue cases to come up to-morrow will be three or four of the Piny River people who were introduced in the clouder of the senate of the cure of kidney, bladder trouble and rheumatism than this new trouble and rheads and linings, cleans out the clogged-up prieded to rendal nuti

The child's clothing caught fire from an open grate, and she was so badly burned before her mother could rush to her aid that it was apparent from the first that she could not live. The mother was at work in the kitchen and the child's father had just stepped out of the room for a moment when the accident took place.

It isn't often that the Lynchburg fire department has a fire brought to it for succor, but that happened last night, when one of the touring cars of the Long Transfer Company was carried to the department for the purpose of extinguishing a blaze.
